The Privacy Act 1993

"CUSTOMER" includes any Guarantor and/or any owner, Director, shareholder, partner or operator of the Customer or Guarantor
 "RELATED COMPANY" means any company related to EFL (or the Customer as the case may be) in terms of Section 2(3) of the Companies Act 1993.

1 EFL may from time to time undertake credit assessments and otherwise obtain, verify and exchange information (e.g. credit reports) concerning the Customer with third parties.

2 If the Customer is an individual any information it may provide to EFL or any existing information held by EFL or a Related Company will be used for the following purposes:

- (a) assessing the Customer's credit worthiness;
- (b) administering and enforcing any Agreement;
- (c) maintaining credit records with EFL, Related Companies and external agencies;
- (d) marketing goods and services provided by EFL, a Related Company or any other supplier nominated by EFL.

3 The Customer authorises EFL to:

- (a) obtain information about the Customer from other sources as EFL reasonably requires.
- (b) retain and use information about the Customer and provide this information to Related Companies and external agencies for the purposes listed above.

All such information will be held by EFL at its business address and by other parties for the purposes described above. Where the information can be readily retrieved the Customer will have access to it and will have the right to have the information corrected. Subject to the Privacy Act 1993 a fee for retrieval and correction may be charged.

PERSONAL PROPERTY SECURITIES ACT 1999 ("PPSA")
 The Customer, any transferee or successor to the interest of the Customer and any Guarantor hereby waive their right to receive verification statements connected with any financing statement or financing change statement registered under the PPSA in relation to any security interest arising by this Credit Application or any finance agreement
